Welcome to the Authentic Media catalogue!

We are honoured to be able to bring you a great new selection of books that point to Jesus, whatever your personal circumstances might be.

Swansong encourages us to make a difference today through the words we speak so that we have no regrets at the end of our lives, whilst Waiting Well With Jesus helps us to lean into God through the bereavement journey.

For those involved in church leadership, we have two inspiring new books. Communities of Hope helps us to develop spiritual communities out of our social action programmes, and Stirrers and Saints helps us lead well with spiritual integrity.

Of course we can't mention all the highlights here, so we hope that you enjoy looking through all our new titles. We have also included our key titles from our extensive backlist, so we hope you find something of interest!

We pray that within this catalogue you will find titles that will bless, encourage or challenge you in your walk with God.

Every blessing in his name.

Waiting Well With Jesus

Strength for the journey through heartbreak to hope (A 52-week devotional journal)

Lynda Wake

HB: 9781788933520 £19.99 // Grief

In this gentle and reflective devotional journal, Lynda Wake shares insights from her own grief journey to help you through your own time of sorrow.

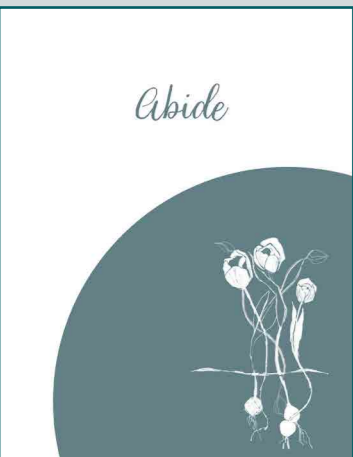

Slipping into despair after her beloved teenage daughter Bethany died of brain cancer, Lynda cried out to God for help. As she accepted Jesus' invitation to journey with him through the grief, Lynda experienced how to wait well with Jesus for the glorious fulfilment of all he has promised.

This devotional journal is the resource Lynda wished she had in her deepest grief. Each week has a different word to reflect on, along with personal stories, Bible references, journal reflections and a prayer, which gently help us to draw nearer to God who understands our pain and grief.

In the midst of our heartbreak, Lynda gently reminds us of our breath-taking inheritance in Christ, discovering rich treasures along the way that can only be found through a costly veil of tears.

LYNDA WAKE serves with Wycliffe Australia and is a regular blogger and devotional writer for Wycliffe Today. Lynda has spoken and ministered around the world in her role with Wycliffe, and as an ambassador for CBM (Christian Blind Mission) on behalf of her daughter Bethany's legacy.

“An invaluable resource filled with wisdom, hope, strength and healing.”

Abide

Our beloved daughter was dying. My mind could not comprehend what the medical experts were delicately attempting to convey: "We are so sorry... we tried our best." My eyes refused to accept the clear evidence before me. Death was hovering, thick and heavy, and we could do nothing to prevent it from devouring our girl.

Experiencing classic symptoms of shock, I felt frozen in fear. From the depths of my soul I cried: "Oh God, where are you! Have you forsaken us? What on earth am I supposed to do now?"

Not expecting an immediate answer, I was surprised when one word dove like an arrow into the core of my being. In his kindness, the Living God gave me one word to hold onto – one simple thing to do that changed everything. He said: "Abide."

Abide is the word I have posted on my bedroom wall as the very first thing I see each morning.

In John 15, Jesus tells his disciples to abide in him. This biblical Greek term used in context means: 'to remain, abide; ... not to depart, not to leave, to continue to be present ... to maintain unbroken fellowship with one.' Over the years since, English Bible translators and commentators have used words such as abide to be in union with, continually tarry to be at home with, to wait expectantly with – all in an attempt to describe the sense.

Kathleen's Story

“On that cold August night back in 2016, I stood in the emergency room, trying to make sense of what the doctor was saying: "We are so sorry... we tried our best." With those words, life as I had known it for fifty-four years suddenly ripped down the middle. My beloved husband was now with his Lord, and I was driven home to face an empty house.

Grief was no stranger to me. My wonderful parents, beloved son and precious granddaughter had already passed into God's presence. But this was different. There had always been the blessing of 'us'... comforting and supporting each other through our losses. Now it was just 'me'... bereaved and fearing a lonely future.

But as I entered my home that night, the peaceful presence of God enveloped me. I was not alone... I still had 'us'! I continue to miss my husband's voice and presence, but I have learned to hear the voice of Jesus and enjoy his presence each day. I intentionally spend my time abiding with Jesus – reading the Bible and listening to worship music and messages of hope. In the process of abiding, I have discovered that Jesus is all I need.

I thank God for my loving family, friends and church. But more than this, I thank him for the gift of abiding in the love of Jesus. I am not defined by the traumas that have afflicted me and as I wait with Jesus to be reunited with my loved ones, I am choosing to move forward into the beautiful life he has created for me.”

Abiding With Jesus

- Engage with John 15 and Psalm 91.
- Journal reflection: What is one new way you could include Jesus in your daily life as you grieve together with him?
- Prayer: Lord, I realize I can do nothing without you. Please teach me how to keep abiding in you as I wait. Please show me the ways that you are abiding with me in my situation right now. May I live a fruitful life, securely anchored in you under the shadow of your wings, Amen.

Communities of Hope

Growing Christian community through social action

Nigel Adams

PB: 9781788933377 £14.99 // Church

Find out how a Nottingham foodbank became a community of hope.

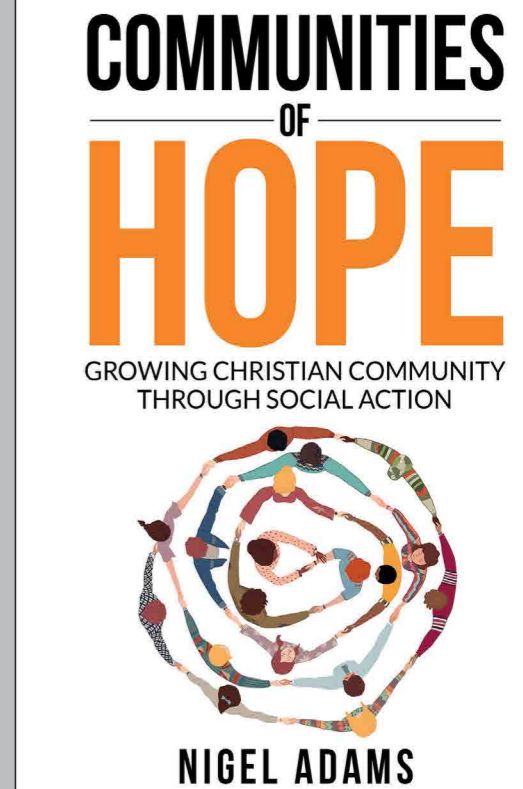

Christian-led social action ministries make a huge contribution to society. But how do we develop new communities where Jesus is known and loved from these activities?

Tracing the story of his own experience working with a foodbank that expanded in many directions, Nigel Adams shares how Hope House in Nottingham offers such an inclusive welcome to all that it has grown into a community of hope. Combining theological insights with practical application, Nigel reveals that when God's people unite to show compassion to those in need, a new kind of community is born that follows Jesus and blesses everyone.

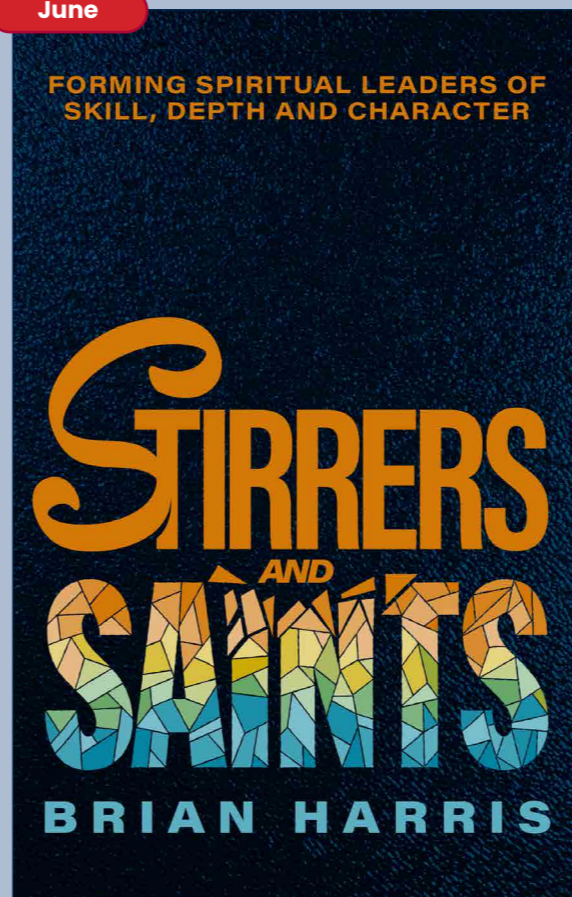

NIGEL ADAMS is the founder and ambassador of Hope Nottingham, and now leads Christian Action Nottingham, a network of social action ministries across the city.

Stirrers and Saints

Forming spiritual leaders of skill, depth and character

Brian Harris

HB: 9781788933605 £16.99 // Leadership

Learn how to be a spiritually mature leader who leads well.

Leadership in the church really matters, but sadly it is often undermined by toxic leaders hitting the headlines. Yet often the most spiritual people in the church do not make strong leaders. So how can we square the circle?

Brian Harris offers a timely appeal for Christians of all personality types to answer God's call to be leaders in the church, stirring things up and providing 'saintly' leadership. By exploring spiritual formation practices, studying biblical leaders, and providing practices to help us become leaders, Brian provides practical resources to raise godly leaders who can lead well.

BRIAN HARRIS heads up Avenir, a leadership institute based in Australia, and is a theologian, a former pastor, and Bible college principle.
