Heroes or Villains?

Exploring the qualities we share with Bible characters

Jeannie Kendall

PB: 9781788932981 £10.99 // Spiritual Growth

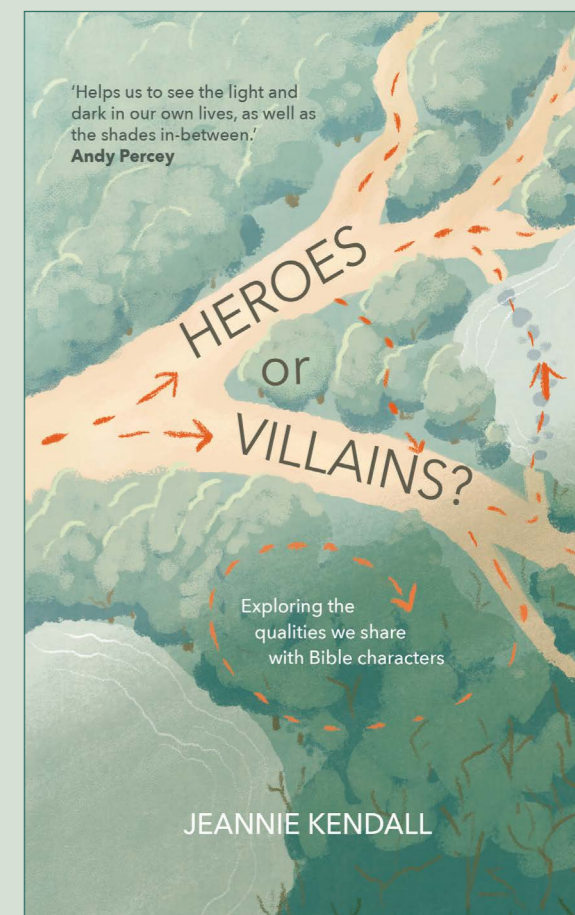

Combining imaginative retellings of Bible stories with psychological insights, Heroes or Villains? looks at the complexity of human nature and reveals how God graciously loves us as we are.

Who are the heroes of the Christian faith? And who are the villains?

Was Jezebel just the thoroughly evil character we believe her to be? Or was there another side to her story? Did David always behave as the great hero of the faith? What about his spectacular mistakes?

Jeannie Kendall shares biblical teaching and profound insights on human nature that can help us make better choices in our lives.

JEANNIE KENDALL is a Baptist minister, who has served in two churches and also had extensive experience working within a pastoral and counselling setting. She is a former Spurgeon's College president and currently teaches on the Pastoral Supervision course.

Simon Williams

PB: 9781788933209 £10.99 // Biography

Simon Williams' incredible story shows how Jesus Christ transformed his life from a cycle of addiction and imprisonment to freedom and a meaningful future.

Simon Williams' life was dominated by alcohol, illegal drugs, fraud and theft. After countless crazy escapades, including crossing a minefield on a tractor, he is caught by the authorities and put on trial in Israel.

Imprisonment does not change him, and he ends up back in prison in the UK. When his home life begins to break down, he tries to wean himself off his old habits – but can't. In despair, he shouts out to God for help and his life is changed for ever.

SIMON WILLIAMS is a computer engineer based in Suffolk. After God freed him from a life of addiction, he is now a trustee of Kairos Prison Ministry.

Day 1:

Surrender to God's Agenda

The all-powerful, Almighty God is going to fill you with hope so it oozes out of every pore. And if you are overflowing with it, fear will have to get going.

Hope says you will get better. Hope says this will not last. Hope says you will get through this.

Hope is the answer. Hope is the gift. And not only that, joy and peace will be thrown in too.

God promises it. The Bible says it, and we need to grasp onto it.

My husband, James, would say this to me again and again, but for some reason I just didn't get it. I was a mess. I would lay on the floor weeping, sobbing, snot running, crying out to Jesus. Anxiety had such a hold on me and it felt like I would never escape. I didn't feel any hope in my situation, none whatsoever. All I could see was darkness. Nothing made me feel any better.

But the Bible says, God is the 'God of hope'. It only I'd believed that life-changing, earth-rearranging truth a little earlier in my journey!

Now I can see the steps that God has taken me through to get to this place. Hindsight is a wonderful thing if you have it. But when we're stuck in the thick of things, when we can't even tell our left from our right, when all is

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.
ROMANS 15:13

break and tough and hard, when life seems impossible, we can feel hopeless. Drained of life. Like there's no light at the end of the tunnel. So much so that we might even wonder if we'll ever get better. I know I did.

Don't be fooled by the enemy's lie that things will only get worse. He doesn't get the final say. God does.

Hope isn't some weak, faltering whisper. It's not pathetic. It's not naive. It's not a sympathetic voice that says, 'There, there, dear'. It's a pumped-up, full throttle, six pack on steroids, dead-lifting life force given to you by the Holy Spirit.

The Bible says it's an 'anchor for the soul' (Heb. 6:19). We're not talking small here. We're talking about an Almighty God-sized anchor that won't budge even in a hurricane, even in the wildest storm. Yes. Exactly. It's bigger than we can possibly imagine.

God is going to give you a way through and a way out. You can totally trust him. And the roadmap is called hope.

You will get through this. You will get better. Hope says you will. Hold onto that big anchor and please, please don't let it go. Ever.

JANE

Journaling

Listen to 'I Surrender' by Hillsong Worship

Let's give hope freedom to roam in our lives. What does that look like? How can we start to let hope in? To give it room to breathe? I picture a white flag waving in surrender. God wants us to surrender the fear and replace it with hope.

What have you hoped for in your life that you struggle to see ever happening?

Why is that? Ask God to show you what has been blocking your door to hope.

Look up a couple of other Bible verses on hope and write them here, then speak them over yourself again and again today.

Now write down here three reasons why you can have hope for the future:

Prayer

Dear Lord,

Thank you for the gift of hope.

Please fill me with your Spirit. Fill me with your hope. Fill me with your power.

Please give me your perspective. Help me to see the future through your eyes.

Help me to hold onto hope. To not let it go. To believe that your hope is for me.

I surrender to the promise of hope.

Amen

When God 'Buts' In

Finding strength to face the impossible

Kate Williamson

PB: 9781788933087 £10.99 // Devotions

Draw strength from 30 biblical devotions about circumstances that looked hopeless until God intervened.

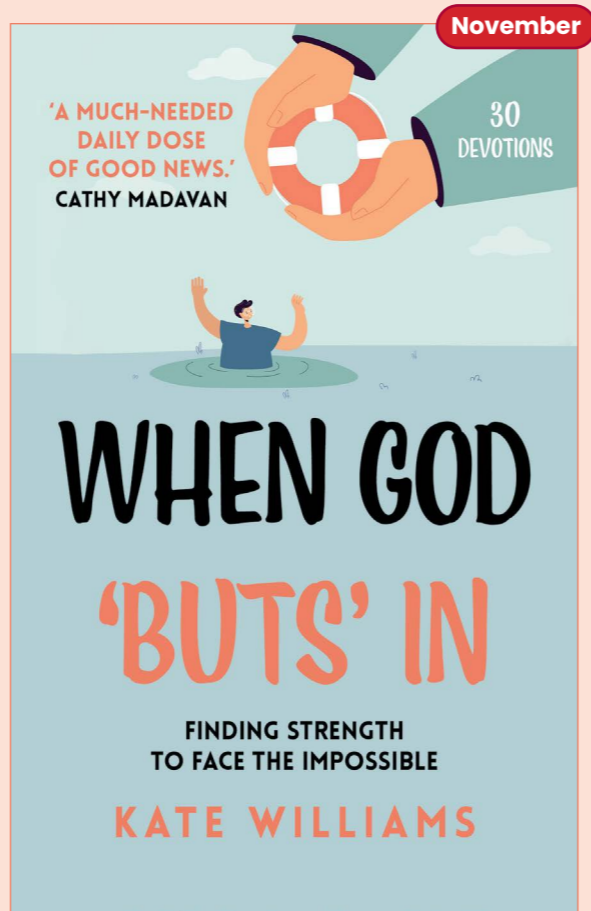

Are you facing a situation that looks impossible?

Many biblical characters faced huge obstacles too, until God brought a 'but' into the situation that changed their circumstances in a powerful way.

When God 'buts' in he isn't meddling or interfering, he is divinely intervening in the situation. Whether that results in a miraculous turnaround in circumstances or grace to sustain you through a trial, God wants to 'but' in and be actively involved in your life.

Kate Williams interweaves her personal experience of challenge with biblical truth to help stir your faith and trust in God.

KATE WILLIAMS lives in Yorkshire where she works as a communication support worker for deaf students.
